

WHERE WILL THEY TRY JUDGE LOVING?

Believed That the Case Will be Heard in Some Country far from Nelson.

ACCUSED MAN A NERVOUS WRECK

Since He Killed Young Estes He Has Aged Rapidly and Also Has Gotten Quite Gray—"Jack" Lee Has Been Retained Leading Counsel for Defense.

RICHMOND, VA., May 10.—John L. Lee, the famous criminal lawyer, of Lynchburg, who is to act as one of counsel for Judge Loving, of Nelson county, the alleged murderer of Theodore Estes, was in the city for a short while today, and called at the Capitol.

Mr. Lee had plenty of pleasant words for the reporters, but absolutely nothing to give out for publication. "We are not talking," said he, significantly, "but there is a whole lot in our side of the case that is as yet unknown to you."

Mr. Lee went to college with Judge Loving and knows the accused and his wife quite intimately. He is also a friend of the Estes family, and is more or less acquainted with nearly everybody connected with the case. It is altogether probable that the grand jury of the Nelson county Circuit Court will indict Judge Loving when it meets the latter part of May, and after this, Judge Bennett T. Gordon, who presides over the circuit, most likely will ask the Governor to designate someone else to sit in the case.

Judge Gordon and the accused once had a personal difficulty, and this, it is believed, will influence the latter to avoid any connection with the trial.

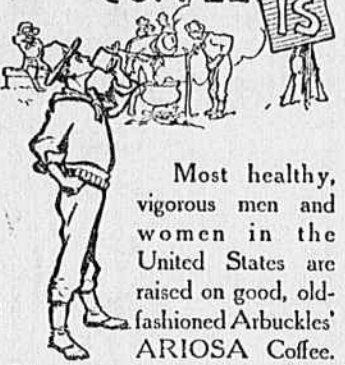

No one—not even Mr. Lee—as yet can say where the trial will actually take place, nor just when it will begin. It would seem, however, in the event that no unforeseen delays occur, that the taking of evidence ought to begin by the end of the first week in June.

Nelson County Can't Furnish Jury.

It is not supposed for an instant that Nelson county will be able to furnish a jury for the trial, and few see how it would be practicable to have it at Lovingsburg, the county seat of Nelson. In this little rural town the sentiment is strong against Judge Loving, and it would be hard to keep the jurors from being subject to the influences about them, even though no one in any way attempted to tamper with the twelve.

More than once it has been suggested that Charlottesville would be a good place for the trial, but Judge Loving's faction might probably object to this also, nor would they care to have the hearing at Danville, for there resides Mr. John Swanson,

HOME! IS WHERE THE ARBUCKLES' COFFEE IS

Most healthy, vigorous men and women in the United States are raised on good, old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee. Never mind what the others drink, you want to be well. Say things to the man who tries to switch you from Arbuckles' to coffee that pays him big profits at the expense of your stomach.

brother of the Governor and brother-in-law of Theodore Estes.

Lynchburg an impossibility. As Lynchburg is the home of "Jack" Lee, one of the counsel in the case, and only a short distance from Nelson, it may be that that town would prove objectionable to the Estes family. Thus it will be seen that if everybody is to be satisfied, it will be hard, indeed, to get absolutely neutral ground. Some one, in this connection, has suggested Petersburg, which, it would seem, ought to measure up to the demands of the situation.

In view of the fact that Judge Loving is to be defended by three exceptionally strong lawyers—Senator Aubrey E. Strode, John L. Lee, of Lynchburg, and Walton Moore, of Fairfax, it is quite probable that at the last minute the Estes family will employ another lawyer to assist Commonwealth's Attorney Whitehead.

Shortly after the homicide, however, Mr. John Swanson, speaking for the Estes family, expressed the opinion that Mr. Whitehead would be allowed to conduct the case entirely by himself. If this plan is pursued—which is hardly probable—it would seem that the odds will certainly be against the commonwealth attorney, however aggressive Mr. Whitehead may be.

From a close friend of Judge Loving, who has seen him recently, comes the information that the accused is a complete wreck now, and that his nerves have been absolutely shattered. Since he killed Estes he has aged rapidly and also has gotten quite gray.

Aged Man Dropped Dead in Cemetery.

PETERSBURG, VA., May 10.—Mr. George Bowman, an aged and respectable citizen of Matoaca, while superintending some work in the cemetery yesterday, dropped dead. He was seventy-one years old, a veteran of Mahone's Brigade and served through the war.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Don't Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair. No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, lose something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
